If we make New Year's resolutions let us make them for mind body and spirit.

That we may use our minds and exercise them in ways that develops for the jobs we do and the roles we carry out as well as allowing some time for pure enjoyment.

That we may keep our bodies healthy by taking care of them with exercise , appropriate diet and rest.

That we may develop by means such as fellowship, study and prayer a closer relationship with Christ , with our fellow Christians and all those in our neighbourhoods and throughout the world ,developing good practice in our stewardship.

And to use a Dickens quote"God bless us every one."

Could I have details of anything relevant to the February issue by 23rd January to allow for publication in time for the start of February ?

Focus on a New Year and New Beginnings
(and new ways of developing the things we already do).

Wesley used a regular prayer based on older prayers to renew his relationship with God and encouraged his followers to do so. His original wording is lost but this is a version he used . A modernised version is the one we use for annual covenant services usually held either in January or at the beginning of the connexional year.

A Covenant Prayer in the Wesleyan Tradition

I am no longer my own, but thine.

Put me to what thou wilt, rank me with whom thou wilt.

Put me to doing, put me to suffering.

Let me be employed by thee or laid aside by thee.

Exalted for thee or brought low for thee.

Let me be full, let me be empty.

Let me have all things, let me have nothing.

I freely and heartily yield all things to thy pleasure and disposal.

And now, O glorious and blessed God,

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,

thou art mine, and I am thine.

So be it.

And the covenant which I have made on earth,

Let it be ratified in heaven. Amen
