

tenebrae

| communion

Latin for shadows or darkness, Tenebrae has an ancient tradition in Christian History. Distinctive for its gradual extinguishing of candles, the service, celebrated in Holy Week, remembers the sombre events that occurred in Jesus' life from the exuberant entrance into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday through to the night of Jesus' burial on Good Friday

Maundy Thursday
13 April | 7.30pm
with optional foot
washing at 7pm

Gillingham
Methodist Church
Third Avenue, Gillingham

tenebrae

| communion

Latin for shadows or darkness, Tenebrae has an ancient tradition in Christian History. Distinctive for its gradual extinguishing of candles, the service, celebrated in Holy Week, remembers the sombre events that occurred in Jesus' life from the exuberant entrance into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday through to the night of Jesus' burial on Good Friday

Maundy Thursday
13 April | 7.30pm
with optional foot
washing at 7pm