Morning Service 10:30am Sunday 27th June Lynne Le Masonry

A very big “Thank you” to Lynne who will, for the time being, be leading most of our Sunday morning services.

MESSAGES

Anne R would like to thank everyone for the cards and good wishes for her 80th birthday. She had loads of visitors and the celebrations were spread over 4 days! The actual birthday was chilly but turned out nice for a buffet in the garden, arranged by her daughters.

OFFERINGS

Thank you to all of you who have continued to make your offerings. It is much appreciated. If you have not already done so, please consider making your offering by standing order or BACS transfer if you are able to do this.

If you are only able to make your offering by cheque or cash, please continue to do so. If you Gift Aid your offering, please remember to include your number if you pay by cheque or cash. Sharon or Heather can tell you what your number is if you are not sure.

There are some small envelopes available should you need them.

A Prayer for Pentecost:

Light and fire on the face of Christ,
Fire that brings the Word;
Fire of silence and light
We give you praise

You who rested on Christ
Spirit of knowledge and wisdom,
Spirit of counsel and strength,
Spirit of love and fear,
We give you praise

You who reach the depths of God
You who give light to our hearts,
Spirit praying within us,
Spirit in whom we reflect the glory of the Lord,
We give you praise

Dear Church Family

As I write this we are busy preparing for our Pentecost service ‘in person’. We have done our very best to make it a special and safe one. Restrictions will still be in place, but will be managed differently.

There is a feeling of excitement in the air, of anticipation I suspect rather like the disciples at the time of Pentecost. Not knowing quite what is going to happen.

We must also be aware that there may be people who are fearful of coming back, and we must be kind and understand their ‘fearfulness’. There may also be those who physically can not return, we are looking at ways to keep in touch and reach out to them. I thank you all for your steadfastness during these very difficult times. I do look forward to seeing all who feel able to come.

We have been working hard behind the scenes with research into possibilities, and opportunities for our future journey. Some things will be very much trial and error so please bear with us. Make your feelings known with kindness, we all need a good dose of positivity at the moment, but if you are not sure of something please do say.

I firmly believe that the future is bright. God has plans for our future.

Lynne

This is a poem that has always meant a lot to me.
It speaks of our need for each other:

My light is burning, bright;
My stride is long, my head is high.
Don't go, I need the humility of your low light.
Stay near and, if by chance you see more clearly to take your next few steps
We shall have served each other well

But now my light is glimmering, low.
I stumble and barely see the way.
I need your light which now is burning strong.
Dare I believe you still need mine?

And now my light is out. I think;
I cannot find the way at all
But stand in darkness, lost, afraid...
Until I see your light, and trust your reassuring hand,
And strength returns, and fear has gone.

And now again somehow, my light is burning bright
Yet I did not see your light touch mine.
We are a gift and a miracle you and I ...
